PERSONAL ITEMS.

What People are Doing in and Out of Roanoke.

The friends of Miss Zoar Williams will be sorry to learn that she is very ill at the residence of her uncle, Mr. Nathan M. Wilmuth, corner Eighth avenue and Second street s. w.

Mr. Chas. E. Graves, well and favorably known in this city as a law stenographer, has opened an office at 126 Salem avenue (with C. Markley). Mr. Graves states that he will make court reporting, the taking of depositions, and the preparation of legal documents a specialty; and his long experience in this field constitute him admirably fitted for the performance of such work. Read his advertisement.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES.

Church Services To-day and New Year Notes About the Churches.

The Methodist Episcopal Church South in Roanoke has so far outgrown its facilities for accommodating its congregations that two new churches will be erected during this year. One is to be built on South Jefferson street and will cost $100,000. It will be one of the largest and most elegant churches in the city.

Another church will be built in the northwest section of the city to cost about $10,000.

The church will organize a third Sunday-school to-day in the new school-house in the northwest section of the city at 9:30 o'clock this morning. A cordial invitation to be present at the opening is extended to all who live in that locality. Major Pendleton, superintendent of school.

The Presbyterians will organize a Sunday-school this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the new school building, with C. E. Graves superintendent.

Senator W. E. Bibb and Mr. C. S. Churchill have been elected by the First Baptist Church to fill the vacancies on the finance committee of the church occasioned by the retirement of Messrs. Charles Lunsford and E. H. Stewart.

Rev. Sewell Browne, of Maine, will preach in the First Baptist Church to-day at 11 a. m. The pastor, Rev. O. F. Flippo, will preach at 7:30 p. m. Subject of night sermon, "The Sad and Glad Surprises of Life." Sunday-school at 9:30 a. m.

The worship of St. Mark's Lutheran Church will be conducted this morning at 11 a. m. in the chapel of the First ward school building. The subject of Rev. Mr. Haffard's sermon will be "The Reasonableness of Religion." Sunday-school at 10 o'clock.

Second Lutheran—Service to-night at 7:15. Sunday-school at 3 p. m.

Greene Memorial Church: Sunday-school, 9:30 a. m. Preaching 11 a. m. by Rev. J. H. Boyd. Subject: "Christ Manifested in His People." The subject suggested by the Evangelical Alliance for the close of the week of prayer. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. by Rev. C. H. Buchanan.

Times Building—National College room: Sunday-school 9:30 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. C. H. Buchanan. The room is nicely fitted up with comfortable seats and heated by steam, and all who attend will find it enjoyable.

A third Sunday-school will be organized.

Rev. J. E. Bushnell will conduct a service at South View Orphan Home, near Roanoke, to-morrow morning. His visit will be of an official character.

There will be services at St. John's Episcopal Church at 11 a. m. and at 4 p. m. to-day.

Mass will be celebrated at St. Andrews' Catholic Church this morning at 8 and 10 o'clock. Rev. Father Lynch officiating. Sunday-school will be held at 2 p. m.

Communion services will be held at the Presbyterian Church this morning.

The new colored Methodist Church, near the colored school building, is about completed, at a cost of $5,000.

The week of prayer services during the week just passed were attended by large congregations.

Read THE TIMES for the news and also read it for bargains.

TO CARE FOR THE POOR.

The Board of Overseers Meet and Organize.

The board of overseers of the poor met yesterday, and the overseer from each ward was present. From the First Ward, J. G. Hanes; from the Second, W. P. Camp, and from the Third, W. E. Thomas.

J. O. Hanes was elected president and W. E. Thomas clerk.

It was decided to ask the city for a new covered ambulance for the conveyance of paupers to the almshouse, and also that no orders for coffins for interment of paupers, or other things, unless authorized by the overseers.

Supplies for the almshouse must also be obtained through the overseers.

The regular monthly meeting of the board will be held on the first Monday in every month.

The Rife Engine Co.

The stockholders' meeting of the Rife Hydraulic Engine Manufacturing Company was held in the office of the company on Wednesday the 7th instant, and the following officers were elected: W. A. Rife, president; M. D. Obenshain, vice-president; B. L. Grider, secretary and treasurer. Directors: W. A. Rife, M. D. Obenshain, W. P. Moomaw, S. W. Jamison, George Melf. Gish, D. H. Matson, A. Lewis. Executive committee, D. H. Matson, chairman, S. W. Jamison, Andrew Lewis, W. P. Moomaw.

The outlook for the company is good, having within the last year made many very satisfactory sales throughout various parts of the United States, with many inquiries from foreign countries. Among recent shipments was one to Australia.

Do not place your orders for blank books for 1891 until after you have examined our work and prices. Hammond's Printing Works and Book Bindery, 110 Jefferson street; telephone 128.

THE HUSTINGS COURT.

Judge William Gordon Robertson Presiding.

The court met at 10 o'clock with Judge Robertson presiding. Rev. I. N. H. Beahm, of the German Baptist Church, was authorized to celebrate rites of marriage, the bond being fixed at $500.

A. W. Pitman was appointed as administrator of the estate of W. K. Pitman, deceased, and bond fixed at $2,000. The following appraisers were appointed: Perry Williamson, W. P. Dupuy, C. C. Taliaferro, Joseph J. Engleby and B. Rust.

In the chancery case of Samuel Gish and wife vs. W. P. Moomaw et als. the joint answer of P. Coon et als. was filed by leave of the court.

The case of J. T. Boyd was postponed till counsel could have an opportunity to introduce what they claimed as important evidence in the case, to the effect that Mrs. James Morris, now of Bedford county, saw a man near Mrs. Sarah Wooten's house on the night of the explosion, who, it is alleged, was not Boyd.

A decree was entered in the chancery case of Joseph Lawson vs. Jennie Lawson.

In the case of John E. Peck vs. Carrie E. Peck and William T. Peck a decree was entered.

In the case of the commonwealth vs. Samuel Wright, charged with the larceny of a watch; the prisoner was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. The prisoner was represented by D. S. Joice, and the commonwealth by Roy. H. Smith. The jury returned a verdict of guilty fixing the penalty at three years in the penitentiary. The verdict was set aside by the judge and a new trial granted.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The New School in the Northwest Section Has Enrolled 230 Pupils.

There has been considerable increase in the attendance at the public schools during the past week.

The new school in the northwest section of the city, opened last Monday, now has 230 pupils enrolled, and it is expected that the number will be increased to 300 during this week.

The primary room is crowded already and the half-day plan will be adopted in this department to-morrow. All the other rooms are about full.

The colored school has about 550 pupils and there will be a considerable addition to this number during the week. The intermediate examination was held last week and many pupils were promoted, and nearly all of them stood creditable examinations.

The primary department of the First ward school will be divided to-morrow, and an other teacher added.

Death of Mrs. Aunsbaugh.

The death of Mrs. R. T. Aunsbaugh, of Lynchburg, at her home in that city, on Friday evening, was a great shock to her numerous friends and relatives. Mrs. Aunsbaugh was greatly beloved, was amiable, gentle and retiring. She is widely connected in this State, being related to the Claytons, Alexanders, Gabriels and Buffers. Her husband, Mr. R. T. Aunsbaugh, of the real estate firm of Spindle & Co., has the sincere sympathy of many friends who mourn with him that the light of his beautiful home has been removed.

Allegheny Institute.

Allegheny Institute has an enrollment of 65, the largest in the history of the institution, and the prospects for a successful term are very bright. Some physical appliances have been received, and R. R. Hamberlin will give a reading at the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church next Tuesday night for the benefit of the gymnasium fund. Of Mr. Hamberlin the Richmond Dispatch says: "All of his selections were very fine, but his rendition of 'The Lay of the Madman' brought out his powers to the best advantage. His fine facial expression and his ability as an actor had full scope in this piece. As a dramatic reader Mr. Hamberlin has an enviable future."

Mayor's Court.

The following cases were disposed of at the mayor's court:

Oney Burdick, drunk and disorderly on Railroad avenue, fined $5.

P. C. Rosenbaum and Marshall Angell, disorderly conduct; Angell fined $5 and Rosenbaum $2.50.

J. O. Dupuy was reminded by a $1 fine of the ordinance against leaving a team unattended on the street.

W. K. Andrews, for assaulting C. E. Sweegy, fined $2.50 and costs.
